Advance Hotel registration – Deadline MARCH 15th !

Dear High School Science Teachers:

The 41st Middle Atlantic Regional Meeting (MARM 2010) of the American Chemical Society is only one month away! The Organizing Committee would like to take this opportunity to tell you about some of the great programming you can expect from April 10-13, 2010 at the Hotel du Pont, Wilmington, DE.

The opening day, Saturday, April 10, is a special day planned for high school students and teachers. Special events include POGIL workshop, Regional Chemagination Competition, Project SEED Poster Session, luncheon, and a special demonstration by Dr. Michael Stemniski.

Tentative schedule for Saturday, April 10:

7:30 - 9:00 AM	Welcome Reception (no charge)
9:00 - 12:00 PM	POGIL workshop
12:00 - 1:30 PM	Light luncheon for high school teachers (no charge)
1:30 - 4:00 PM	Chemical Education Sessions
1:30 - 4:00 PM	Precollege poster session
1:30 - 4:00 PM	Regional Chemagination Competition and Project SEED Poster Session
4:00 - 5:00 PM	Special demonstration by Dr. Michael Stemniski in the King/Sullivan Room

I am aware that this date, for some of you, is at the end of your Spring Break. I am also aware that the NSTA 2010 National Conference is March 18-21 and in Philadelphia. Please join us at MARM 2010 !

YOU MUST REGISTER TO ATTEND. There is a registration fee. Advance registration deadline is March 28th through the website at <http://www.marmacs.org/2010/register.html>

Sincerely,

Martha Hollomon, PhD
